C. T. FLANDERS, JUDY, KY.

TALK BY PRESIDENT JENKINS.

He Says the Bible Contains Masterpieces of Literary Style and Pride and Beauty of Youth.

President Burris A. Jenkins delivered an address to about three hundred men Sunday afternoon, September 27, in the Broadway Christian Church, Lexington, Ky. President Jenkins simply and with straightforwardness talked on "The Young Man and His Book." He says the literary, the scientific, the religious and the business man to read the Bible. The choice maxim of the public schools today is "make children love to study." We should stimulate love and taste for the Bible. There is nothing like the study of it. It pays, if for nothing else than its superb literary style.

The speaker then quoted from Emerson, Shakespeare, Milton and others, at the same time making comparisons with certain verses of the Scripture. He plainly showed the Bible to have had authors of greater ability than have ever lived since the days of Christ. Scientists have come to the Bible to find their theories. With their scientific apparatus they have tried to destroy the facts relating to science in the Bible. Let them search as long as they may. We want them to search and do it diligently. It will strengthen our cause. Has science ever told a better story about the creation of the earth than the first chapter of Genesis? No, volume ever published has gone under such rigid investigation.

"The poets and artists of literature have never surpassed the Bible. The difficulty with men who criticize the Bible is that they have never read it. The words of Jesus Christ are beautifully polished. There are no epigrams in English literature like 'Suffer little children to come unto me.' Nor the prodigal son story, the five wise and the five foolish virgins or the thirteenth chapter of Corinthians. Shakespeare never wrote a chapter that compares in dignity, power and aim with the Bible's writings.

The Bible is the source of our strength. It is the source of our emotion, its influence is all-potent. It is the source of our hope, great and glorious. It is the source of our faith. Most of our hopes are expelled. When we are disappointed, the day of our tribulation comes, then you have a new life. Life is a fighting contest. It is in adversity and opposition that progress is made.

"You should all read the life of King David. He was a man of passion, temptation, ambition and energy. He was much like the young man of the present day. While King David ultimately failed in his efforts for success, we admire him for his fortitude in time of adversity. There is the test of sorrow in the lives of men. I see faces before me that express sorrow, trials and misfortune. It comes to all. Into all lives comes the rain, the hail, the storms and the thunderbolt. We shall find strength with the Bible. Read after Jesus. He lived a life like ours, in that it was filled with disappointments. He reveals the way for you to go. His idea of human nature, of what is good and noble, is for you to learn and do as he tells you. He comes into contact with all sorrow, affliction and tribulation. Keep a close comradeship with him. May God help us to study thoroughly, deeply and intelligently the word of God."

Save Your 1904 Dollars.

[Salina, Kan., Telegram to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

The "1904 dollar" fakir has invaded Kansas. Men are scattered over the State representing a company of bunco-steers operating out of St. Louis, and their scheme is to sell information concerning the "1904 dollar," which they try to convince their victims that the railroad companies are anxious to secure and to any one having a dollar of that year the railroads have offered a round trip ticket to the St. Louis World's Fair. Word comes from different parts that persons have been foolish enough to bite at the game.

VIOLATE LAWS.

TO GET CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Federal Employees are Assessed in Large Cities

EFFORTS TO ELECT BELKNAP.

Negroes are Being Imported to Louisville, Lexington, Covington and Paducah.

COME FROM OTHER STATES.

In their desperate efforts to give Belknap a big vote in Louisville, Lexington, Covington and other of the larger cities in the State, Federal employees are being assessed by the Republican Machine in violation of the laws of the United States.

A circular letter requesting in polite terms a contribution to the campaign fund, but none the less concise and to the point, has been sent out by the Republican Campaign Committee.

These letters were mailed to Republicans in general who it was thought might contribute to the fund, but to the internal revenue employees in particular, from whom the committee has all along calculated upon raising $10,000 or more in Louisville alone.

It is a direct and grave violation of the civil service laws for any Government official to be used for political purposes. It is likewise an infraction of civil service law for any one to solicit funds from a Government official to be used for political purposes while that Government official is about the discharge of his duties in his own office or any other office owned or occupied by the Government.

In the Internal Revenue Department of the Fifth District are employed about 250 storekeeper-gaugers and storekeepers and gaugers. They receive salaries ranging from $115 to $70 a month, though the average is from $55 to $60 a month. From time immemorial, so long as the Republican party has controlled the national Administration, this corps of storekeepers and gaugers has been looked upon as a valuable asset when it came to raising money for campaign purposes.

For this campaign the word has been passed along from the Campaign Committee that a donation of $50 from the storekeepers and gaugers who have regular assignments and steady work will be "appreciated," and from those who have not regular work, but only serve during the busy seasons donations ranging from $25 to $40 would be "gladly received."

Hundreds of strange negroes have also appeared in Louisville, Lexington, Covington, Paducah and elsewhere. They have been imported from Tennessee, Ohio and Indiana to the smaller towns in Kentucky. The Republicans will make an effort to register them as legal voters. By this method they hope to pad the registration and thus pad the vote on election day for the Republican State Ticket.

Once upon a time Professor Wilson, of Edinburgh, wrote on the blackboard in his laboratory.

Professor Wilson's first question was: "What is the question?"

In the course of the morning he had occasion to leave the room and found on his return that a student had added to the announcement the words: "God save the Queen." "Chicago Saturday Evening Herald."

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

To Whom it May Concern.

People who know too much are still leaving Breathitt county for fear of assassination, and Capt. Ewen, who happened to see the murder of J. B. Marcum and who had the courage to tell on the witness stand what he saw, is not only unable to live in Breathitt county, but finds it expedient to move about hurriedly from one point in the State to another for self-protection.

In view of these conditions, it would be well for certain men who have so long ruled Breathitt for evil to take to heart a few words of warning which the Courier-Journal volunteers to give them.

These men should not make the mistake of assuming that the interest of the people of Kentucky in the affairs of Breathitt county has subsided, or that their determination that the reign of anarchy there shall cease has relaxed. They should not take it for granted that with the disposition of the cases against Jett and White, with the scattering of the witnesses and the militia and with the lapse of a few weeks or months the program of bloody revenge and extermination can be resumed in Breathitt county with impunity to those who have so long heretofore followed that programme without hindrance. They were able to keep up such a programme prior to the murder of Marcum; they cannot do it now with any assurance of safety to themselves. They ought to know this, and we believe they do know it. They are far from fools, and only fools could so greatly mistake the temper of Kentucky now as to think that they could safely defy public sentiment, already so strong against them, by resorting again to the policy of assassination by which they once maintained their supremacy in Breathitt and by which they have so outraged against themselves the entire State.

The Courier-Journal does not deem it necessary this morning to call these men by name. It has called them by name so often that there is not a reader of this column who does not know who they are. Indeed, there is not a man in the State who does not know who they are. Their positions are so public that the law and who have the power by means of hired assassins who does not know when he reads these words that the Courier-Journal addresses them to him.

that the people of Kentucky know that they are addressed to him. It would be wise for each one of this gang to take home to himself the true significance of this warning, as well as the recognition of the identity of those to whom it is directed.

They are standing on very thin ice, which, with any further step in the path of murder that has brought them to their present position, will inevitably break through to their own long deserved undoing.

They will be fortunate if they escape punishment for their murders in the past. If they add to those murders there is not money enough and power enough, and powder, steel and depravity enough in Breathitt county to save their necks from the gallows. Two of their tools have been tried and convicted, but this does not satisfy the people of Kentucky. They know that behind Jett and White are men guiltier than they. They know, or they think they know, who those men are. They have not abandoned the hope that it will yet be possible to prove who they are. Let those men make but another move to continue their murders and it is an absolute certainty that in the light that now beats upon them they will not be able to escape responsibility for their crime.

There is an excellent chance yet to hang them, even if they never lift another lawless hand. Let them take a single life in intimidation of those who know their past misdeeds or in revenge upon those who have dared to tell what they know, and their doom will be assured.—Courier-Journal.

Not a One-Man School.

Although the seal, the letter, heads and other printed matter of the University of Chicago bear the legend "Founded by John D. Rockefeller," it is by no means a one-man institution, for more than one-third of its enormous wealth has been contributed by citizens of Chicago. The following are some of the largest contributors:

WRONG MAN FIRED.

A jury heard the confession of one negro charged with the stealing of a watch, and in order that he might be deterred from repeating the theft, was given a three years' term in the penitentiary. Who will say it was not a just verdict? Another broke into a warehouse and took a few bushels of grass seed. He threw himself on to the mercy of the court by confessing to the theft. Was a two years' sentence a just punishment? No man will say it was not. Another comes to the city, one in the habit of carrying a gun and getting drunk at parties, and because he was not allowed to do as he pleased threatened officials and in an attempt to murder shot one of those he had threatened, down. Was the case against the negroes just, and if so then what about the punishment of Iyrd? In the language of another such men do not deserve to live and had there been a law demanding a death punishment it would not have been too severe for the crime committed. Such a verdict for such a character as Iyrd is a punishment only to those who furnish the money to pay the fine and in no degree would it deter them from the repeating of such deeds or the committing of a more atrocious crime. It is necessary for juries to more seriously consider the law and evidence in such cases and to inflict a punishment that would deter or place the accused where he would be powerless to commit crime and where he could have an opportunity at reformation.

Republicans are making a great deal about the $17,000 and more paid out in suppressing the Breathitt county feud. The difference between Democratic expenditures to State militia and the Republican is this: Democrats have forced an investigation have convicted criminals and brought peace, while Republicans spent great sums of money and concealed criminals.

IT MEANS A LAND SLIDE.

From 5,000 to 7,000 people including men women and children, greeted Governor Beckham at Lebanon on last Wednesday, and not less than 3,000 people crowded about the stand and gave strict attention to his statements as he rendered an account to them of his stewardship. How that from assassination peace is being quickly restored, and that life and property will be secure in Kentucky alike to all parties. While the expense in restoring order has been enormous, under Democratic administration, taxes are less than under Republican control and Kentucky is without a debt.

The people see in Governor Beckham, a good business man attentive and wise, a man who has been Governor of the people, and they are demanding that he be reelected. That's what these large crowds of interested men, women and children mean. Beckham and his questionable business methods, and Owens with his morals are not material for Kentucky chief executive.

NOT HARD TO DISTINGUISH

If a man shows his horse in a ring against others and for having the best individual is awarded a prize we do not regard this as gambling.

If we put our energies into making the best local papers, and the people who are the judges decide in our favor and the prize is their patronage, we would not consider this gambling.

If a purse is made up and our boys enter an oratorical contest and one is awarded the prize, we would not pronounce that gambling. If Mrs. Beckham or any other good woman should play at a bowling alley and should make the highest score, and be awarded a box of candy we could not draw so far-fetched conclusion and say this was gambling either.

The gambling is by those who bet and win whether in a game or not.

Efforts Appreciated.

Everybody knows it is almost impossible to get shoes, these days, made from leather tanned after the old fashioned way. Yet there are some good shoes. We hunted the world over—we found every day shoes and Sunday shoes, in all styles for men and boys, plain calf, box calf, velvet calf, kids, patent kids, patent colts, patent calf, high top, regular top, low cuts, that are still being made out of honest material. We thought it best to handle such goods at a small margin of profit rather than those with larger profit and less quality. We are happy to know our efforts have been appreciated. Our shoe department has more than doubled. We thank you, and shall still keep the efforts on foot. Guthrie Clothing Co.'s is the place for the best and latest in footwear for man or boy.

The Great Wallace Show will be here on Tuesday, October 18th. Of course everybody will be here because Wallace has one of the greatest shows on earth. We expect the parade to pass by the Advocate rooms on Bank street and of course we will welcome all who may come our way. Seldom does so wonderful a show come our way and it will be well for the people to turn out.

Judge S. S. Savage, one of the best known men in Eastern Kentucky, died at the Presbyterian Hospital, Cincinnati, Monday of kidney trouble. He was a resident of Ashland, Ky., and was big-hearted and lovable. The State will greatly miss him.

Monday the Republican and Democratic speakers were busy. From reports the Republicans addressed less than 2,000 and the Democrats spoke to about 10,000 eager listeners.

Dark Lantern Methods of Republican Party.

The Democrats should not be fooled as to the methods of the Republican State Campaign Committee. The Chairman of the Republican Committee is Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter, whose way of conducting a campaign is unique. He now has secret headquarters at the Galt House in Louisville and is conducting the campaign of his party behind closed doors.

He is endeavoring to create the impression throughout the State that the Republicans are disorganized and are taking no interest in the election. He is also endeavoring to create the impression among the Democrats that Beckham has no chance and that his followers have practically given up the fight. However, it is learned from absolutely trustworthy sources that Dr. Hunter is using all his skill to effect a complete organization in every precinct in the State and that all of this is being done with the greatest secrecy and with the employment of all the dark lantern methods known.

It is also learned from the same sources that the Republicans have a larger campaign fund this year than ever before and they are relying on simply buying the majority for Beckham in order to get this State in line in the Presidential race in 1904.

Realizing the importance of the fight this fall, the Republican National Committee has sent thousands of dollars to Kentucky and this vast sum has been greatly augmented by subscriptions from big corporations and by contributions of the Federal Machine, which, contrary to the law, has forced minor employees of the Government to give money from their salaries.

It has long been Dr. Hunter's boast that he can carry Kentucky if he has the money to buy the votes. The Democrats in the coming election should show Dr. Hunter that the Republican party backed by the National Administration, the corporations and the Federal Machine cannot buy the suffrage of the people of Kentucky.

They should show him that it makes no difference to what extent the State is flooded with money that the vote of the Commonwealth cannot be purchased and that they believe in majority rule.

College President.

Dr. Wm. L. Pickard, of Lynchburg, Va., one of the brainiest and sweetest-spirited ministers of the Baptist Church, writes the following about the new President of Georgetown College:

"In my opinion, the college could not have elected a man more capable than he to fill the place. He is a gentleman of great intellectual ability. His splendid mind is exquisitely disciplined. His learning is unusually broad and accurate. His power to see truth, and make others see it, is of a very high order. For six years our parastates were contemporary in Alabama. He was on the right side of all denominational questions. And a tremendous force in the denominational work. He and I have not seen every question in the same light but men who think will sometimes differ, and it is possible that where we have differed, my thinking has been small, his large. He is a true man. If he believes a thing, he says so in the open. He is a foe to error, a friend to truth. I predict for him a brilliant career as an educator of young men and women. Mark my prediction, the college world will feel the force of J. J. Taylor's brain."

Tipton Young, one of our very best young business men, has secured a position with the Louisville Paper Co. We think this thriving firm fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Young.

JUDGE PRATT

Cannot Recover Salary For time Judge Breckinridge Held His Office.

Judge Cantrill has given judgment for the defendant in the case of Clifton J. Pratt against State Auditor Coulter to require him to pay Pratt salary for the time Judge Robert J. Breckinridge held the office and performed the duties of Attorney General of State, and also in the case of I. B. Nall and others against J. W. Throckmorton and others. The last named action was to recover salary for the time the Republican minor officials held the offices pending the settlement of the contests. The court decided that the plaintiffs in neither action are entitled to recover anything. Both cases will be appealed to the Court of Appeals for final decision of the questions involved. Judge Pratt sued to recover $8,000.

Public Sale
CITY RESIDENT LOTS.

I will offer for sale to the highest bidder on Thursday, October 22, 1903

AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

The following property, situated in the western part of the city of Mt. Sterling, on a high elevation and in a very desirable and healthy locality.

Seventeen Lots

There are five lots on Winchester Avenue, 72 feet front by more than 200 feet deep, and on the new street to be opened are the same number of lots. On the Grassy Lick pike are seven more lots, making in all seventeen of the most desirable lots in Mt. Sterling.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY.

This is a rare opportunity to secure the most desirable resident lots in a growing city as there is in the South. A lot may be purchased now and with a modern house on it be worth in a few years double the amount paid for it. No opportunity for real estate investment has been offered in Mt. Sterling equal to it. The clerk in the bank or store can put his savings in cash property, and within a short while have a nice sum from it.

EASTERN KENTUCKY INVESTORS.

It also offers a rare opportunity for Eastern Kentucky investors who have realized from their coal and timber lands and desire a home in a blue grass town.

Resolutions of Appreciation.

Judge Cooper at the expiration of the present term will have served out 15 years on the Bench, that he has been active, faithful and just. An abundant testimony was furnished by members of the Bar at their meeting on last Saturday evening. Major A. T. Wood was chairman and H. R. French, secretary. Resolutions were offered expressive of appreciation of a just Judge and after a full expression favoring the resolutions, they were carried unanimously, and ordered printed in the local press.

We desire to say of Judge Cooper that he has been a hard and conscientious worker, that he has shown no man and has undertaken to see that the law has been strictly observed in all cases. That he has been a fearless Judge, is shown in his work in Rowan and Magoffin counties at a time when it was hardly safe to occupy the Bench. He will after January 1st return to the practice of law and contend manly and justly for the rights of his clients. After the close of the Bar proceedings Judge Cooper came from his office and addressed his fellow lawyers in a manner tending to inaugurate a better spirit of actions among all lawyers.

The Judge among other things said that he may have been at times severe on the members of the Bar but that he retired from the Bench and returned to them with out enmity to any and with the best wishes for all.

HON. JOHN E. COOPER.

Your Committee appointed at a meeting of the Bar of the Montgomery Circuit Court to draw suitable resolutions on the retirement of the Hon. John E. Cooper from the Bench, beg to make the following report:

Judge Cooper was elected Judge at the August election, 1884. At the time he was elected his district was composed of ten counties, to-wit: Montgomery, Bath, Menefee, Powell, Russell, Lee, Breathitt, Wolf, Morgan and Elliott. There was a large criminal docket in every county in the district. By his untiring energy, working almost day and night, he reduced the docket in these counties almost to a minimum.

In 1886 there was a new district made composed of the counties of Montgomery, Bath, Menefee, Morgan, Elliott and Magoffin; five counties were taken off of the old district and Magoffin was added on. It is known to one of your committee that at the time Magoffin county was added to this district there were forty four (44) felony cases on the docket.

In 1889 the county of Rowan was added to Judge Cooper's district, making seven counties. The first term of the Court in the fall of 1888 of the Magoffin Circuit Court, Judge Cooper tried more than one-half of the felony cases on that docket, and when his present district was made, on the first of January, 1893, the docket in that county was comparatively clear of felony cases, and we know as a part of the history of Rowan county the condition that docket was in when it was added to Judge Cooper's district, and it did not take him very long to let those people know that the laws would be enforced in Rowan county, and by 1890 the criminal docket in Rowan was reduced to comparatively nothing, and to-day there is not a more peaceable county in the State.

Judge Cooper will leave the Bench with the docket in his four counties in splendid condition, every case tried that was ready for trial.

When Magoffin county was added to his district, hundreds of dollars of fraudulent claims were presented for allowance, but not a single dollar of these fraudulent claims escaped his critical eye, and he saved to the State hundreds of dollars at the first term of that Court, and it is due to Judge Cooper to say, of the eighteen years that he served as Judge not a single fraudulent claim of any kind has ever been allowed by him, and no Judge has ever taken greater pains to save to the State every dollar that could be saved, both in witness claims, jury claims, and every description of claims that passed through his Court, and the people of the district owe to Judge Cooper a debt of gratitude for his enforcement of the law in his district.

In every case he has given the defendants, who were charged with crime, a fair and impartial trial, and has looked to the rights of the Commonwealth, and has strictly guarded the rights of the defendant, and in all cases where poor persons were indicted for felonies, and were not able to employ counsel, he always appointed the best lawyers at his Bar to defend them.

Resolved, that the thanks of this Bar are due to Judge Cooper for his uniform courtesy and fairness while acting as Judge of this Court, and dealing out exact justice to all parties as he saw it, and the people of the district owe him a debt of gratitude for the faithful performance of his duty and his rigid enforcement of the Criminal Laws in the districts over which he presided for eighteen years. All of which is respectfully submitted and your Committee recommends that these resolutions be spread on the Order Book of this Court.

Efforts Appreciated.

Everybody knows it is almost impossible to get shoes, these days, made from leather tanned after the old fashioned way. Yet there are some good shoes. We hunted the world over—we found every day shoes and Sunday shoes, in all styles for men and boys, plain calf box calf, velour calf, kids, patent kids, patent colts, patent calf, high top, regular top, low cuts, that are still being made out of honest material. We thought it best to handle such goods at a small margin of profit rather than those with larger profit and less quality. We are happy to know our efforts have been appreciated. Our shoe department has more than doubled. We thank you, and shall still keep the efforts on foot. Guthrie Clothing Co.'s is the place for the best and latest in footwear for man or boy.

Bird Law.

The bird law expires on November 15. There has been a game warden appointed in each precinct in the county, whose duty it is to report anyone killing a quail before that time, who will be dealt with according to law. Wait a little longer, boys, then go after them.

OFFICE ON COURT STREET.

SUMMER COON.

BUVILLE, Ky., September, 1903.

All about Belknap and Billy O, not the ex-Governor Billy O, but the Jack-pot Billy O, who broke there one neck in Mt. Sterling last Saturday. What a pity there friends ever let them come to Montgony, so soon after Governor Beckham and Ole had bin here. Wont the Republican party never learn anything about gaining strength, or not, the shurely ought to no by this time that those old rye eaters which has bin sipping and sliding about between the two hash factories for the last few years is a drawback to them—what kind of a job can a man or a party of men expect to put up with rotten material—a summer job of course. A big crowd, yep of course, all the Beckham followers wer there to here Belknap and tel about the trees and sawmills he wanted to put up in Kintucky. By grab, we tried that buis' with W.S. Taylor, one, what did he do—gobbled up all the machinery and run off over to Indiana before finding out whether he had any right to the timber or not, taking Finley his engineer, and leaving his fireman with the heavy part of the load on his shoulder. Them little pranks he issued to his fireman has proved out to be of no good. We demicrits wants no more republican trust and prosperity in our old commonwealth.

O my, how the brag on Jack-pot Billy, now, while he is trying to wallop diggers in the same skint with them. Look sharp, it wont be long unless you will have to put a muzzle on Billy like we democrats did because he wanted to eat at the last table all the time. Keep a strong string tied to his tail or he may become haughty and fly the track at any time. He is mighty unruly when he is not well fed. Billy dont like to blow his assets out where everybody can see and here him, he is a moral, modest example for our younger lady bucks, now preparing to go all up and down the line which they will have to do before the can see the whole load like Billy has. Therefore Billy transacts the most of his bus behind closed doors. Wel I had a darned old gray hound once and I tel you right now, the better I treated him the weaker he got, so I concluded after so long to give him a thrashing once and awhile and maybe it would make a little change in him, one way or the other, I did not give a darned what my remedy might prove. For I saw if the worst had to come I would call on my old hunk-smooth bore which hangs in a couple of papaw hocks over the parlor door and I would soon realize what was what and who should be cock of the con box walk, me or Pomp, as I called him, so one morning I got a big elum switch and by grancy I made the forly for about five minutes. Now you may believe if you want to or not, I dont promise that all I do or say to be as square as a pistol in every instence, but I tel you right now whether it be so or not, the first dose of elm tve I give Pomp made him begin to like and whines around me just to be thrashed, sum times he comes with switch in his mouth and runs up on me—that is why I no the woe I treat him the better he loved his master. I have come to the conclusion its the same with sum people in a grate many respects.

I draw my iders from this: I note that sum of our old Confederate solgers come to live the party that whirped and banged them from pillow to post in the civil war at now helping those devils to defeat his side spinning out honesty. (Gee whizz) and the going a gnat a nice thing when the strike the republican party for the clean thing. My! My! I reckon if Belknap gets his saw mill started Bill will get the job of poking the fuel in the furnace. Bill is a good poker man any way. O I am so tired the mill will blow up in November and kill out the whole load. SWEET COOK.

EDUCATION.

As Viewed By Roosevelt and Cleveland.

Expressions at the Installation of President Finley.

Dr. John Husto Finley, who left the faculty of Princeton to accept the presidency of the College of the City of New York, was to-day installed in that office, a notable gathering of college presidents and other men of prominence participating in the installation ceremony. Seventy universities and colleges were represented and Gov. Odell, Senator Dupew, Grover Cleveland and Presidents Hadley, of Yale; Schurman, of Cornell, and Butler, of Columbia, delivered addresses.

Among those in attendance were: Daniel S. Lamont, former Secretary of War; Charles S. Fairchild, former Secretary of the Treasury; John G. Carlisle, former Secretary of the Treasury; Gen. Young, Gen. Chaffee, Mayor Seth Low and other city officials; Gov. William H. Hunt, of Porto Rico; Charles R. Skinner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Col. Albert L. Mills, Superintendent of the West Point Military Academy. A letter of congratulation from President Roosevelt was read.

It was as follows:

My Dear President Finley: Nothing is more characteristic of our American republic than the fostering care which, through their representatives, the people have assumed over the education of all the citizens in primary matters and of all those who care to go beyond primary matters in those additional branches necessary requisites of attainment of leadership in the great professions. In all this our people have surely been very wise.

Education as given in the schools and colleges cannot of itself fit us for good citizenship. But the lack of it would assuredly render us unfit. You, and those associated with you, and those who in the innumerable other institutions of learning throughout the country, are doing similar in kind if not in degree to yours, all alike, make the whole body politic your debtors. Next to the home is the school, the college, the university, which do most to determine the efficiency of the individual as a citizen in this great self-governing republic of ours, and therefore those who are to shape our citizenship of the future, put the nation in a special sense under obligation to them.

With all good wishes faithfully yours:

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Senator Depew delivered an address and was followed by Presidents Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale; Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia; Jacob G. Schurman, of Cornell, and Ira Kensen, of Johns Hopkins, in brief congratulatory addresses. Grover Cleveland then spoke, making special reference to the importance and value of free education.

Mr. Cleveland said, in part: I can not rid myself at this moment of the thought that education is a selfish useless thing if it is to be hid in a napkin, or if it is to be hugged to the breast by its possessor as a mere individual prize, and it seems to me that the existence of schools and colleges in this land of ours can scarcely be deemed important except as they are the sources from which education may be distributed through many channels for the enrichment of the body politic and the stimulation of patriotic thoughtfulness among our people.

It should be the prayer of every patriotic citizen that American education may never be degraded; that it may always remain true to its mission, a steady force against all untoward conditions; that higher education as it becomes more accessible and widespread may re-enforce the firmness of our national foundations, as they are made to bear the increased weight of our country's beautiful development, and that in the democracy of education our people may ever be gathered together under the sanction of enlightened and strong American citizenship.

Boycott Question to be Settled.

A few days ago two suits were instituted in Connecticut which are of national and perhaps international importance. There is an association called the Anti-Boycott Association, the purpose of which is to contest the action of labor organizations in declaring boycotts. In Danbury is a firm—D. E. Lowe & Co.—of hat manufacturers, who refused to accede to the demand of the labor union to make their establishment an union factory; whereupon a boycott was declared against it, and their workmen were induced to leave and purchasers were boycotted who purchased hats manufactured by this firm. This action caused immense loss to this firm, and it has instituted two actions—one in the Federal Court under the Sherman anti-trust law, for $340,000, and one in the State court for $100,000. To these actions two hundred and fifty citizens of Connecticut and a number of the officers of the American Federation of Labor have been made defendants and attachments have been issued and levied on the property of all who have property in that State. These actions, while brought in the name of this boycotted firm, are instigated and the expense met by the National Anti-Boycott Association, and are instituted to test the legal questions involved. Under the Sherman act, injured parties may recover three times the amount actually suffered.

In the action filed in the Federal Court it is averred that the American Federation of Labor, the hat-makers' union of Danbury and the two hundred and fifty private members who are made defendants conspired to injure the plaintiff, in violation of the Sherman act. In the State court the plea is that a conspiracy was formed, contrary to law to injure the plaintiff.

The progress of this litigation will be watched with profound interest. If the courts hold that not only may private members be sued and held liable for boycotting, but that the unions can also be held responsible, and that the measure of liability is the damage caused by the boycott, it will have the effect to put an end to capricious boycotts and probably to all boycotts.—The Herald Sept. 28.

Announcement Extraordinary

For the AUTUMN and WINTER of 1903-4

we gathered from the best markets in the world the most superb line of Men's and Boy's wearing apparel ever shown in any city or town in the country. Our constantly increasing business, with a steady growing demand for higher grades, places us in a position to handle larger stocks of a finer quality than other stores. Owing to the large volume of business done by this house and its economical system, never failing to take advantage of discounts and other opportunities offered by manufacturers, enables us to sell the Standard Makes and Highest Qualities at Prices as Low as other stores ask for inferior grades. A look here this season will mean a great deal to you and will be a pleasure to us. The model garments of the Stein-Bloch Co., and Hamburger Bros., showing what correctly dressed men will wear this fall are on exhibition now. The high grades handled and controlled by us will not be found in other stores.

embraces all that's new and stylish in Short, Boxy Top Coats, Raglan Gowns and Chesterfield Lengths, made of Cloths Cravenetted by D. Priestly & Co., Limited, of London, England. These Cloths are porous and yet shed the rain. All the newest weaves and colorings of the season's style predominate in these garments.

The prices are as low as asked for inferior grades by other stores.

Wanted the Town—Police Tested.

Sunday morning about one o'clock after having tanked up Saturday evening late, Tom Wilson and Mike Walters proceeded to occupy the town after their own taste. They took possession of Fountain Square and fired a few shots and because H. F. Mastin and Dee Smith did not want such conduct and demanded they stop, they turned their guns on the officers and but for the fact Mastin's gun failed to discharge there would have been one less of king Alcohol's subjects. Smith's gun was a sure fire and for several moments he exchanged shots with them. Again the police and peace disturbers had an encounter and again the battle was fierce—no warm did the officers make it that Wilson and Walters were glad to get away with their lives. No one was hurt, but a ball from a gun struck the house of W. P. Apperson going through a shutter, breaking glass and burying itself in the wall on the opposite side. Fortunately no one of the family was struck. Wilson and Walters were pursued and Wilson was caught and placed in jail. Walters is still at large and if possible will be caught and punished as severely as the law will permit.

A Carving and Shooting Over the Title to a Chicken.

On last Friday evening the report of a pistol rang out from a colored restaurant on East Main street as the result of a quarrel and scrap between two coons, Jim Barnes and Louis Garret, over a chicken which each claimed a title to. Barnes was cut in several places, the neck, face and head. Dr. W. R. Thompson took several stitches and adjusted the carved hide that the healing process might be more easily done and the repairs were completed. With the other negro it was more serious, he received a shot in the arm, breast and abdomen and if he gets through it will be by a close call. These negroes are not regarded the vilest yet they would hardly be classed among the best of Sunday School pupils.

Released.

Nimrod Byrd, Jr., who was tried last week for shooting with intent to kill, has been turned loose, his grandfather being compelled to pay a fine of $250 for him. The people of Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county, who know the subject and the wilful attempt at murder are justly outraged that so desperate a character should be freed like a ravenous wild beast to prey upon his fellows. The case is fresh in the minds of the people. Byrd had come within the city jurisdiction, had threatened officials, and one whom he threatened gave him an opportunity and that threat he attempted to carry into effect by shooting and killing him. It was not his fault that his threat was not executed, for he did his best and Smith's life was spared for weeks. Juries should study their cases more closely and inflict such punishments as would correct the charged and prohibit the recurrence of such crimes.

Judge H. R. French having served as clerk of the Circuit Court faithfully, correctly and to the satisfaction of all concerned and retiring from this honored position, a committee at the Bar meeting Saturday was appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the appreciation of the Bar.

Fit and Style!

There are some things which can't be improved. One of these things is the "QUEEN QUALITY" Shoe for women. You can make it more elaborate, you can decorate it, embellish it, use costly materials and all that. But for $100 a pair than "QUEEN QUALITY," having regard solely to the two great essentials of FIT and STYLE. This means that mechanically it is perfect. As for its appearance, the fact that one hundred thousand women choose it instantly above all other shoes would seem to indicate that it is attractive. Why don't you go for us to try on a pair the next time you go to the store? It costs nothing to see them at your foot.

DEATHS

SHANKLIN.—M. Elliott W. Shanklin, Secretary of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association is dead. He died Friday evening, October 2, of acute indigestion, the end coming suddenly and without warning. His last act was a deed for charity sake. An arduous worker, the association has sustained a heavy loss.

WILLS.—Henry Wills aged 37 years, died at his home in this city on last Wednesday from a chronic bowel trouble. Funeral services were held at the home Friday conducted by Rev. G. A. Joplin of the 1st Presbyterian Church. Burial in Macpelah. Mr. Wills had been confined to his bed eight weeks and was an intense sufferer. He had the confidence and sympathy of a host of friends. Thirteen years ago he began business here and was the chief support of his mother's family until death. No man that ever lived here deserves more credit for his struggles in life than he. He leaves a widowed mother, four brothers and a sister to mourn his loss.

CARRINGTON.—James Carrington aged 78 years, died at his home in this city on last Saturday from pneumonia. Funeral service was conducted Sunday at his late home by his pastor, Rev. H. D. Clark, and his remains were taken to the Jep. McDonald farm for interment. For years he had been a member of the Christian Church and was a good citizen.

KIDD.—Mr. W. B. Kidd, of Clark county, died at St. Joseph's hospital Lexington Saturday from cancer of the testis, aged 73 years. He was brother of Mrs. George Anderson and an uncle of Mrs. William Greene, Mrs. J. A. Shirley and Mrs. R. J. Hunt. Mr. Greene and wife, Mr. G. W. Anderson and wife and Mr. William Moore and wife attended the funeral service at the Winchester Christian Church conducted by Pastor Rev. Armstrong. He had been a trader for many years and during all that time continued in the confidence of his people.

A Release and An Arrest.

RELIGIOUS

Last week we told of the C. W. B. Mand Ky. C. M. C. at Paris and now give the closing two days.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky State Sunday school convention opened at the Christian Church in Paris on Thursday, September 28, with an attendance of over one thousand.

The State evangelist, R. M. Hopkins, reported thirty-seven counties visited, sixty-three institutes held, twenty-five conventions attended, ten new schools organized, and one hundred and fifty-one added to the church. All expenses were met and $70 left in the treasury.

The year that has just closed has been the most prosperous in the history of the work.

One hundred and sixty-eight Sunday schools contributed on children's day, more than $3,000 was raised on that day. Winchester was in the lead, contributing $161.

There are 500,000 boys and girls in this State not in the Sunday school. B. L. Smith, corresponding secretary of the American Christian Missionary Society, and others made enthusiastic addresses.

A. McLean, President F. C. M. S., made an earnest appeal for more of the missionary spirit in the Sunday school. M. G. Buckner and R. E. Moss also took part.

The one-hundredth anniversary of the organization of the church at Cane Ridge, Bourbon Co., was celebrated at that historic spot on Friday, September 25, 1903, immediately following the conventions in Paris.

Geo. Cowen, President of the Ky. C. M. C., presided, calling the assembly to order at 10:15 a. m. "Am I a Soldier of the Cross" and "O! Happy Day" were sung.

Prof. C. L. Loos offered prayer, after which we sang: "O! Thou Fount of Every Blessing."

Mrs. B. W. Stone, aged 68, of Covington, Ky., daughter-in-law of Barton W. Stone, the central figure of the event which is this day commemorated, was introduced to the convention.

Miss Bessie Johnson, great grand daughter of Barton W. Stone, sang: "Nearer my God to Thee," while her sister, Miss Lutie, played the organ.

The first speaker for this day was Rev. J. B. Briney, of Moberly, Mo. The subject of his address was: "Cane Ridge and the Dawn of the Reformation."

A. B. Philpott, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was to have delivered an address on "Our Movement at the Dawn of the Twentieth Century," but owing to the serious sickness of a brother he was absent.

"Down the Future" was the subject of an address by Burns A. Jenkins, President of Kentucky University. He closed at 12:20 o'clock.

"I Love thy Kingdom Lord," was sung.

REMINISCENCES.

Short talks were made by George Darsie, W. F. Rogers, I. J. Spencer, C. L. Loos, Mark Collis and Milton Elliott.

After some announcements, the assembly sang: "Praise God From Whom all Blessings Flow," and at 12:55 the inspiring and sacred services closed.

The number of people present was estimated from 3,000 to 4,000. The hospitable people of the county had prepared a fine dinner for more than present. After a season of social converse and sacred memories we departed for our homes, each no doubt, realizing that it was good to have been at Cane Ridge. Thus closed the sessions of four days.

B. W. TRIMBLE.

Rev. Geo. A. Joplin will have for his theme at the First Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning, "Jonathan Edwards and his influence on America." Many Presbyterian churches are considering this man and his life work at this time because of the two hundredth anniversary of his birth.

Prayer meeting at the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday night at 7 o'clock, the topic will be "The Mormons." All who are interested in this question—and surely every one is at this time—are cordially invited to attend.

There were two large congregations at the First Presbyterian Church on last Sunday, and they listened to two intensely practical and helpful sermons. In the morning the topic was "Hindrances to God's Work," and in the evening "How to enter Christ's family." The pastor of this church feels greatly encouraged at the increased interest that is being manifest in all departments of the church work.

Elvener Presbyterian will meet at Frankfort Monday, Oct. 12, and the Synod of Kentucky at Hopkinsville on Tuesday evening, Oct. 13. The First Presbyterian Church of Mt. Sterling will be represented by the pastor, Rev. Geo. A. Joplin, and Elder D. R. Bishop.

Rev. W. J. Bolin will return from Shelby county Saturday and preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. These may be the last opportunities to hear Mr. Bolin. He will be glad to see his many friends at these services.

Rev. E. Mann, Presiding Elder of this district, preached to large audiences at the M. E. Church Sunday. His morning sermon was both pleasing and profitable, and those who heard Mr. Mann Sunday evening say his sermon was very fine.

Rev. J. E. Abbott has accepted the pastorate of the Southern Presbyterian church at Marshall, Mo. Mr. Abbott is one of the most prominent preachers of his church. A young man as he is, there are few that pass him in close study and in reaching logical conclusions. We regret to lose him and his most excellent family.

Rev. John E. Abbott will be at home this week and will preach at the Southern Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. Congregational meeting after the morning service.

THE BUSY BEE CASH STORE

Was never, even in its zenith, more resplendent with beautiful merchandise for the Fall business. Every department is overflowing with choice stuff. The beauty and elegance of which surpasses anything ever seen in this city, and many large stores in the big cities will fall short when comparing stocks with this splendid array of attractive merchandise.

→ EVERY CORNER OF THE ORIENT ←

Has been ransacked to make this store different from any other, and never has it been so beautiful, so full of things you want. With the cash in one hand and a knowledge of our business in the other, we visited all of the great Dry Goods centers of the East, and now we will be proud to welcome you to come and see what we have accomplished.

"ACCOMPLISHED AT OUR STORE FOR YOU."

Not only do we offer you bargains in every department that are so ridiculously low in price as to really astonish you, but we are also showing in these departments styles that are up-to-date, qualities that are unquestionable and patterns that are owned and controlled exclusively by us. We have been doing some masterful buying for you in every department and now all that is new and best await your inspection and approval.

DRESS GOODS.

We are exceptionally strong in this department. Our counters are heaped up with stocks of woven dainties for this fall's wear that are as fresh as apple blossoms. Our Big Daylight Dress Goods section is filled to overflowing with recent importations with all the newest and best things obtainable in fall dress fabrics, including the swellest productions of the world's best weavers. A really wonderful collection of choice Dress Stuffs, and the values are unmatched and unmatched in this or any other city.

WASH GOODS.

In this, one of the most beautiful and attractive departments in our Great Store, you will be shown the prettiest of new Fall Waistings, Mercerized Oxfords, Mercerized Novelties in plaids, French doli, the prettiest that ever graced a dry goods store in our city. These goods are the thing this season. We are showing our enormous stock of Percales, Ginghams, Cheviots, new weaves for fall Shirt Waist Suits, Oxfords in endless varieties, all the new patterns in prints, outing cloths, canton flannel, fleeced back wrapper goods and waistings; in fact you can find everything you want in this department. Goods all new and fresh, no old carried over stuffs. Buy the up-to-date novelties in wash stuffs. Don't be misled by other offerings. Get our cash prices on all wash goods. We are selling good wide Percales at 6c per yard; good Bleached Cotton at 5c per yard; Check Cotton, wide and good quality for shirts and drawers, at 5c per yard; best Apron Gingham at 5c per yard; good calicoes all styles 3 1/2c per yard. We are showing an enormous lot of these goods to select from. "Come and see them!"

LINEN DEPARTMENT.

Judge a housewife by the linen in her house and "judge a dry goods store by its linen stock." Oe welcome this kind of judgement. We have carefully studied the linen business and we have carefully studied the linen market at home and abroad. We make the statement advisedly, that no such assortment of linens and no such values in linens can be found in any other store within a radius of 100 miles. We are showing honest, trustworthy linens that will wash and wear better than any you have ever had and the secret of their cheapness is that we tripple the sales on them by sharing the profits equally with you. This is linen evidence that speaks for itself. Get our cash prices on linen of all kinds.

NOTIONS.

All the little notions that one needs are to be had here, and they are always cheaper than you can buy elsewhere. "No imitations or seconds" get standing room here. Don't scorn the little things, they count vitally in the "scheme of life." A drop of rain is a "little thing" but if it falls into the sea and is caught in an open shell it may form a pearl. The cents we save a family on the myriad articles in our notion department that are daily needed, will amount to many hundred dollars in the years that pass. You can find in this department: Pins 1c paper; Needles 1c paper; Hairpins 1c a paper; white and black Tape, any width, 1c a ball; But tons 1c per dozen; Thimbles 1c each; Safety Pins 2c dozen; Gum webbing from 3c to 25c per yard; Children's Handkerchiefs 1c each; Ladies' all-Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs 5c each. Have a look at our line of handkerchiefs for both ladies and gentlemen. We consider our handkerchief stock one of the crowning efforts of our store. The new Initial Handkerchiefs, bleached and in the highest new Swiss embroidered novelties, are a thing to be found in this stock.

HOSIERY.

Ladies' Black and Colored Hosiery at 5c; Children's ribbed hose, all sizes, 5c; Children's double-knee ribbed hose 10c; We are showing the best school hose for children ever shown in this city. Our Hosiery Department is right on deck in this line and is equipped with the best, strongest and most durable hose for little folks that the market affords. Our Ladies' Fleece Lined Hosiery from 10c to 25c pair are the talk of the town. Our fine Lisle Thread and all-Silk Stocking are strictly up-to-date; The patterns are the prettiest. Call and see them.

RIBBONS.

We, knowing that ribbons would be exceptionally good this season, have purchased an unusually large stock, and at prices very low. You can find anykind of ribbons you want in this stock and save money on every piece you purchase.

CORSETS.

Corsets are a delusion and a snare; we found that out long ago and acted accordingly. Our enviable corset patronage has been built up by keeping none but the best. Your favorite corset is here, if not we will get it for you. If our corsets are not in every way satisfactory, we want to know it, as with everything in our store, if not right we will make it right. We want your patronage and when we get it we will use every just effort to keep it. Try one of our American Lady Thomson Glove Fitting and J. & B. Corsets. They are made in all the new styles, and fit better, wear better and are more comfortable than any other Corset. Get prices on different styles.

THE WAGE WORKER'S DOLLAR

Often represents hours of arduous toil. When that dollar is spent it should command its fullest purchasing power. To give it that power is one of the vital principles of our business. Our public knows this; they appreciate the efforts which our store is constantly making to give them a bigger dollar's worth than they can get elsewhere. The consequence is that our store is always crowded with throngs of eager buyers, who are taking advantage of the opportunities we have presented them. "Get in the band wagon and follow the crowd," and be one of the busy throng who are daily buying the "big dollars worth" from the Busy Bee Cash Store.

UNDERWEAR.

To say that we are offering bargains in this department that are superior to anything to be had in this market, would be putting it mild if we stopped right there, but we ask you to get prices in this department, and to see the Ladies' Fleece Lined Vests and Pants in Ecru bleach that we are selling at 19c, worth 35c. Ask to see the Men's Fleece Lined Vests and Pants at 24c, worth 40c. Ask to see our Children's Union Suits for boys and girls at 25c; they are extra clean and heavy weight. Our Men's extra heavy Fleece Lined Vests and Pants at 39c, worth double the price. Buy everything in Underwear and you can be sure of quality.

CLOAKS AND SUITS.

We are like the whimsical trader. We scour the world for merchandise and do not buy until we know that the styles, material and prices are right. We search until we find correct merchandise, then buy. Consumers should do likewise. Make the rounds, if you please, and buy when styles, prices and qualities are right. We are certain you will buy here. We haven't an old coat nor suit in our entire collection. The care we give to these garments is a sufficient guarantee of their excellence. We demand from the maker the best he can produce; we want our money's worth. We admit your right to demand the same and we cheerfully refund your money for every purchase you make if you are not satisfied. Have a look through this department and be convinced.
